LBX Company and Partequipos Win Bid to Supply 52 Hydraulic Excavators to Colombian Government

LEXINGTON, KY (August 16, 2013) - LBX Company, maker of Link-Belt excavators, through its authorized dealer Partequipos Maquinaria, has been awarded a bid for 52 Link-Belt excavators by the Colombian Government. The sale consists of 50 model 210 X2 over tracks and 2 model 210 X2 amphibious (over floatation tracks), adding up to a sale of nearly US $10 million in equipment.

LBX's International Business Manager, Ed Gerber stated, "this accomplishment was possible due to the excellent work performed between Partequipos, LBX's commercial team and LBX's Japanese manufacturing plant's prompt response to the modifications required by the Colombian Government. In addition, we take great pride that the Link-Belt Excavators also surpassed other competing name brands in both quality and performance".
